CONTENTS OF VOL. XXVI.

SUMMARIES OF POLITICS.

Mr. Cochrane Johnstone, 1.
Denmark, 8.
Lord Cochrane, 33, 88, 129, 210, 257, 384, 412.
Address to the Electors of Westminster in behalf of Lord Cochrane, 65.
Lord Dundonald's Letter, 73.
American War, 78, 321, 353, 392, 417, 449, 545, 577, 660, 673.
The Emperor Napoleon, 97, 225.
The Grand Jubilee, 161.
Liberty of the Press, 193.
Balance of Power, 289.
The Inquisition, 291.
Re-establishment of the Jesuits, 300.
Joanna Southcott, 326.
Poland, 363.
Corn Bill, 385, 513.
Naples, 425.
Colonel Quintin, 433.
Spain, 459.
Ways and Means, 481.
Retaliation, 560.
To the Prince Regent, on the American War, 609.
Letter A. to a Correspondent in America, on the Expences, Taxes, &c. of Great Britain, compared with those of America, 641.
Letter I. to the Earl of Liverpool on the American War, 680.
Letter II. ——— 705
Letter III. ——— 754
Letter IV. ——— 771
Letter V. ——— 801
Letter VI. ——— 833
To the Cossack Priesthood of the State of Massachussetts, 787, 812.
Spain in her State of Deliverance, 788.
France, 849.

REMARKS.

Corn Laws, 16, 278, 339, 435.
Spanish Affairs, 19, 415.
Norway, 245.
The Congress, 317, 571.
State of France, 319.
America, 320, 531.
The Pope, 346.
French Finance, 375.
Destruction of Washington, 479.
Maritime Rights, 529.
Kirkcaldy Address, 569.
Colonel Quintin, 635.
Desperate Naval Engagement, 692.
Property Tax, Westminster Meeting, 858.

POETRY.

War in Disguise, 315.

COMMUNICATIONS.

A Friend to Sincerity, respecting Mr. Wilberforce, 17.
J. Brown, respecting Lord Cochrane, 76.
Aristides ———, 102.
——— on the National Debt, 446, 475, 586.
——— on the State of the Nation, 630.
X. Y. on the Law of Conspiracy, 104.
Revisal of the Laws, 108.
G. K. on America, 110.
Benevolus on Capital Punishments, 245, 264.
J. B. on the Innocence of Lord Cochrane, 264.
J. D. on the Liberty of the Press, 268.
An Observer, on the Inquisition, 271.
——— on the Rise of the Jesuits, 311.
——— on the Pope, 269.
A Detester of Tyranny, on Lord Cochrane, 337.
Veritas, on the American War, 399.
Nauticus, on the American Navy, 408.
Dion, on Corruption, 414.
G. K. on America, 436.
R. F. on Public Rejoicing, 475.
A Reformer, on "The Reckoning," 478.
Picture of France, 489.
A. B. on Tythes, 493, 604.
A North Britain, on National Defence, 520.
Sabbatti Sevi, 528.
A Constant Reader, on Peace and the Congress, 530.
Minatus, on the Emperor Napoleon, 603.
Comparative Force on Lake Erie, 604.
Varro, on the Installation of the American President, 628.
——— on the Liberty of the Press and Free Enquiry, 792, 818.
Erasmus Perkins, on Religious Persecution, 730, 797, 853.
Hortator, on American Bravery, 761.
Defence of Corruption by an Anti-Reformer, 765.
University of Oxford, 767, 823, 851.

F. on America, 789.
A Constant Reader, on America, 790.
A Farmer, on Cheap Bread and High Taxes, 790.
Pacificator, on America, 315.

SELECTIONS FROM OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

The History of Urbain Grandier, from a Collection of French Criminal Cases published in 1787, 146, 168.
Extracts from Mr. Brand's Pamphlet on the Corn Laws, 278.
——— Judge Fletcher's Speech to the Grand Jury of Wexford, 282.
——— a Discourse on the Mutability of Government, respecting the Jesuits, 301.

OFFICIAL PAPERS.

SPAIN.—Declaration of 13th June 1814, 19.
Political Constitution of the Cortes of 19th March, 1812, 21, 124, 254.
FRANCE.—Exposition of 12th July 1814, 112.
Report on the Liberty of the Press, 201.
Protest of the Parliament of Paris, 604.
NORWAY.—Correspondence between the minister of the King of Sweden and Prince Christian Frederick, 246.
ROME.—Decree of the Pope, Re-establishing the Jesuits, 307.
——— Against Freemasons, 350.
——— Restoring the Monastic Orders, 374.
GREAT BRITAIN.—Report of the Corn Committee, 26 July, 1814, 389.
Speech of the Prince Regent, Nov. 8th, 1814, 629.
AMERICA.—Documents respecting the Attack on Fort Erie, Battle of Chipawa, and Devastation at Washington, 498.
Declaration of Independence, July 4th, 1776, 494.
Constitution of the United States, 498.
Proclamation respecting the Destruction of Washington, 531.
Account of the Battle of Champlain, 572.
Message to Congress, Sept. 20th, 1814, 597.
Report of the State of the Navy, 666.
Correspondence at Ghent, between the American and British Commissioners, 696.
Report of the Secretary of War, 826.

PRICES AND BANKRUPTS.

Record of the PRICES of Bread, Wheat, Meat, Labour, Bullion, and Funds, in England, during the time that this Volume was publishing; and also of the number of Bankrupts, during the same period; that is, from July to December, 1814, both months inclusive.

BREAD.—The average price of the Quartern Loaf, weighing 4lb. 5oz. 8drms. in London, which is nearly the same as in other parts of the country, 1s. 1d.

Wheat.—The average price for the above period, through all England, per Winchester Bushel of 8 gallons, 8s. 1d.

MEAT.—Per pound, on an average for the time above stated, as sold wholesale at Smithfield Market, not including the value of skin or offal. Beef, 7½d.; Mutton, 8½d.; Veal, 9½d.; Pork, 10½d.—N. B. This is nearly the retail price all over the country, the Butcher's profit consisting of the skin and offal.

LABOUR.—The average pay per day of a labouring man employed in farming work, at Botley, in Hampshire, being about a fifth higher than the wages throughout the whole country, 2s.

BULLION.—Standard Gold in Bars, per Oz. £4. 7s. 1d.—Standard Silver do. 5s. 8½d. N.B. These are the average prices, during the above period, in Bank of England Notes. The prices in Gold and Silver Coin are for an ounce of Gold £3. 17s. 10½d.; for an ounce of Silver, 5s. 2d.

FUNDS.—Average price of the Three Per Cent. Consolidated Annuities, during the above period, 65

BANKRUPTS.—Number of Bankrupts, declared in the London Gazette, during the above period, 494.